National Anthem: God Defend New Zealand – Aotearoa

Sung by all

E Ihowā Atua,
O ngā iwi mātou rā
Āta whaka rongona;
Me aroha noa
Kia hua ko te pai;
Kia tau tō atawhai;
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa

God of Nations at Thy feet,
In the bonds of love we meet,
Hear our voices, we entreat,
God defend our free land.
Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife and war,
Make her praises heard afar,
God defend New Zealand

The Sentences

*The Reverend Canon Katie Lawrence
The Right Reverend Justin Duckworth*

Hear the words of Jesus Christ our Saviour:

Ko ahau te aranga, me te ora: ko ia e whakapono ana ki ahau, ahakoa kua mate, e ora anō: e kore anō hoki e mate ake ake ake ngā tāngata katoa e ora ana, ā, e whakapono ana ki ahau.

---

Hoani 11:25

I am the resurrection and the life; even in death, anyone who believes in me, will live.

---

John 11:25

Set your troubled hearts at rest.
Trust in God always; trust also in me.

John 14:1

Koia anō te aroha o te Atua ki te ao, hōmai ana e ia tāna Tama kotahi, kia kāhore ai e ngaro te tangata e whakapono ana ki a ia, engari kia whiwhi ai ki te ora tonu.

---

Hoani 3:16

The Bidding

The Right Reverend Justin Duckworth

In grief and gratitude we bid farewell to a greatly loved Queen.
For her grace, humanity and dignity, for her courage in adversity, for the happiness she brought to so many,
for her steadfast pilgrimage of faith,

for her example of service, and for the duty which she rendered unflinchingly to her country and the Commonwealth, we thank and praise Almighty God.
As we commend Elizabeth, God's servant, to the mercy and love of God, let us especially pray for her family in their loss.

God our Comforter,
you are a refuge and a strength for us, a helper close at hand in times of distress.

Help us so to hear the words of our faith that our fear is dispelled, our loneliness eased and our hope reawakened.

May your Holy Spirit lift us above our natural sorrow, to the peace and light of your constant love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn

Sung by all

Where mountains rise to open skies
Your name, O God, is echoed far,
From island beach to kauri's reach
In water's light, in lake and star.

Your people's heart, your people's part
Be in our caring for this land,
For faith to flower, for aroha
To let each other's mana stand.

From broken word, from conflict stirred
From lack of vision, set us free
To see the line of your design,
To feel creation's energy.

Your love be known, compassion shown
That every child have equal scope:
In justice done, in trust begun
Shall be our heritage and hope.

Where mountains rise to open skies
Your way of peace distil the air,
Your spirit bind all humankind
One covenant of life to share!

Prayers and Act of Remembrance

The Venerable Don Rangi
Bishop Waitohiariki Quayle
Cardinal John Dew

In a time of silence, let us make our personal thanksgiving to God for the life of Elizabeth, our Queen.

☞ Silence is kept

Candles are lit by

Grace-Angela Funaki, representing Niue Association (Victoria University)
Nathan Lopa, representing Te Namō Te Lumanaki (Victoria University)
Rhiannon Mackie, representing Blake Young Leaders
Thomas Clark, representing Boys' Brigade
Jillian Tupuse, representing Virtuoso Strings
Ella Parke, representing Riding for the Disabled

The time of remembrance concludes with the following prayer

E maumahara ana mātou ki te hunga kua mate.
E te Matua, ka tukua atu rātou e mātou ki ōu ringa.

God our loving Father,

We thank you that you have made each of us in your own image, and given us gifts and talents with which to serve you.

We thank you for your servant Queen Elizabeth's long life and reign, the wisdom we saw in her, the example we received from her.
Now give us strength and courage, to leave her in your care, confident in your promise of eternal life. Meinga mātou kia whai wāhi ki tōu rangatiratanga i te rangi. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray that God will grant comfort and strength to all who mourn.
Ko te Karaiti te Kīngi o ngā kīngi, e whakaora nei i āna pononga hei hoa pūmau mōna.

God, the Father of mercies and giver of all comfort, draw near to His Majesty the King, the Royal Family and all who mourn today.
Make your love known to them, that they may turn to you and receive comfort and strength.
Help them to put their trust in you,
and their hope in your grace and compassion.
Use us, Father, as bearers of your love to support others in their grief;
this we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for that hope which only God can give.
Kua ara te Karaiti i te mate.
Kua horahia te aroha:
koia te Ariki o te wā, te Ariki o te Ātea.

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heaven, to enter into that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling, but one equal light; no noise nor silence, but one equal music; no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession; no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity; in the habitations of your glory and dominion, world without end. Amen.

---

John Donne (1572-1631)

I runga i te whakaponono me te tūmanako, ka waiata tātou.

The Lord's Prayer

The Choirs sing

E tō mātou Matua i te rangi
Kia tapu tōu ingoa.
Kia tae mai tōu rangatiratanga.
Kia meatia tāu e pai ai ki runga ki te whenua, kia rite anō ki tō te rangi.
Homai ki a mātou āiane
he taro mā mātou mō tēnei rā.
Murua ō mātou hara,
Me mātou hoki e muru nei
i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.
Aua hoki mātou e kawea kia whakawaia;
Engari whakaorangia
mātou i te kino:
Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga, te kaha, me te korōria,
Ake ake ake. Āmine

Historical reading

The Right Honourable Jacinda Ardern Prime Minister of New Zealand

An extract from the 'Royal Visit to New Zealand', describing the Queen and Duke of Edinburgh's departure from Bluff at the end of their first visit to Aotearoa New Zealand in the summer of 1953-1954.

Nearly an hour passed before the Gothic sailed. For most of the time the Queen and the Duke leaned over the rail on the upper deck, smiling and waving repeatedly and taking photographs of the scene on shore.

A Māori party on the wharf sang songs of farewell and the Gothic's band played, but the overall sound was of cheering, swelling up again and again.

As the great white ship moved slowly through the channel, crowds ran along Marine Parade keeping abreast of her, everyone cheering, many weeping, reluctant to give up their waving until the answering white-gloved hand could be seen no longer.

With music still sounding across the water, and a host of small boats, loaded to the limit, forming a ragged procession astern, the Gothic with the Black Prince taking up her watchful station, began the voyage to Australia.

The Royal couple's last close view of New Zealand was had next morning. While the Black Prince waited outside, the Gothic sailed quietly into the majestic Milford Sound, where, with no crowds to acclaim them, Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh gazed lingeringly at the splendid scenic wonder epitomising the beauty of the land they were leaving, until the Royal yacht turned again and headed into the open sea.

Hine e Hine

Voices New Zealand sings

E tangi ana koe
hine, e hine.
Kua ngenge ana koe
hine, e hine.
Kati tō pōuri rā
noho i te aroha
Te ngākau o te matua
hine, e hine.

Haere rā, mareikura e

E hari tō moe moea
hine, e hine.
Marama ahua
hine, e hine.
I roto i tō moenga mehemea he marama ka tae mai te Reinga
hine, e hine.

Gospel Reading

Erana Ngarimu

Head Girl, St Mary's College, Wellington

'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd.

Hymn

Sung by all

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
he makes me down to lie in pastures green; he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnishèd in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me;
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling place shall be.

Nunc dimittis

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.
